DESIGN INFORMATION

PERSONS TO ACT FOR YOU:

GUARDIAN FOR MINOR CHILDREN: If you have any children under the age of 18, list in order of preference who you wish to be guardian.

In order to assist you in determining a guardian, the following “helpful hints” are offered for consideration in making this decision:

1. List people who would be a better choice than foster care.
2. Make a list of the parenting characteristics that are important to you, and pick the top 5.
3. Go over list 1 and rank the people in order of how they fit your top 5 parenting characteristics.
4. Consider contingencies – if Aunt & Uncle are on the list, and they divorce or one dies.
5. List everyone you definitely do not want to be guardians, for whatever reason.
6. If anyone on the list of guardians cannot get to your home within 30 minutes, if needed, identify temporary caretakers, as well.

STRUCTURED TRUST: You determine how long the property is to remain in trust. During the period of time the property is held in trust it is available to the beneficiary for needs (health, education and maintenance). You may give written instructions to the trustee outlining guidelines to be followed in determining the beneficiary's needs. You may provide for a staggered distribution of principal; i.e. 1/3 at age 30 and balance at age 40. You decide who will manage the property and to carry out your distribution instructions. Does the beneficiary have a right to be a cotrustee and/or choose his or her own cotrustee? You decide how the trust is designed. List your desires:

REMOTE CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY: Who do you want to receive your property in the remote event that no one listed above is alive to receive your property. Determining the remote contingent beneficiary is not so important that it should cause you to delay completion of your entire estate plan. It can always be changed at a later date.

In the remote event no one listed above is alive to receive my property, I want my property distributed as follows:

- To each spouse's heirs-at-law.
